WEBMASTERS REPORT: (www.happywanderers.net) Ron Russell was present at the meeting. Nothing new to report.

ASSISTANT CHAIRMAN: Dave Berthiaume was not present at the meeting.

ER'S Report: Keith Scott was present & reported that the Memorial Day BBQ was a hit with a great band & he was happy to see many camping club members there. Discussed the pros & cons in regards to SCE using the Elks Lodge property for solar power. Pros-lodge will always have power provided, solar panels will provide covered parking with DG underneath including a lighted pathway, this is not a sale but a lien which is for 15 years, lodge will receive $10/sqft totaling $200,000. as soon as installed, the lodge will also be a Community Service site for cooling elderly folks which will also bring in additional money. Cons-lodge will no longer be able to rent out property.

OLD BUSINESS: A reminder that the only campouts to come are Oceano July 15-18 & Wine Country RV Resort September 16-19.

NEW BUSINESS: Dee Glynn announced that the clubhouse at Piru is officially reopened & she has set the dates for that campout November 4-7.

Ron Russell shared that the Ned's Dream golf tournament is accepting registrations for those that are interested in a really fun day while all the proceeds go back to our youth athletes. The event is on September 25 @ Los Robles Golf Course & will be a Scramble start at 8:00 AM. No experience necessary however if you are not interested in golf, please come join in the fun for lunch & silent auction. Also, if you know of any youth needing assistance with a sports scholarship or clinic, please reach out to Ron Russell. www.nedsdream.com
